

OHIO LABORERS Benefits

Disclosures about an Employer's Participation in a Multiemployer Plan Under Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2011-09

General Information

Legal name of pension plan: Laborers Local No. 265 Pension Plan

Employer identification number (EIN) of the plan sponsor: 31-6127282

Plan number: 001

Date of most current annual report (Form 5500 for U.S. plans): August 15, 2023 (as of 10/31/2022)

Is the annual report filing publicly available? Yes

Plan Year End: October 31st

Pension Zone Status

Pension Protection Zone Status certified by plan actuary:

2024: Critical and Declining

2023: Critical and Declining

2022: Critical and Declining

Is extended amortization utilized? Yes

Is a funding improvement plan (FIP) or Rehabilitation Plan (RP) required to be implemented based upon the Pension Protection Zone Status?

FIP: No

RP: Yes

Contributions

Year	Amount contributed by all participating employers:	Surcharge Imposed?
2023	$1,585,688 (estimated and unaudited)	No
2022	$1,675,753	No
2021	$1,556,679	No

To determine the amount contributed to the Laborers Local No. 265 Pension Plan by your company, please review your contribution records. If you are unable to determine the amount, please contact the Contractor Relations Department at Ohio Laborers Benefits for assistance at (800)236-6437.

Agreements and Minimum Funding Commitments

Are there future minimum contribution requirements? NO

Description of any minimum funding commitments: Not applicable

Expiration date of collective bargaining agreement: May 31, 2027

Other Plan Information

The following employers contributed 5% or more of the Plan's total 2022 contributions:

- Baker Concrete Construction
- Gateway Concrete Forming Services
- Nelson Stark Co.
- Combs & Weisbrod Masonry Inc.
- ZSR Contracting & Restoration
- Monarch Construction Co.
- Universal Contracting Corp.
- Laborers Local #265

Information regarding the employers which contributed 5% or more of the Plan's total 2023 contributions is not yet available.